

GO CASHLESS ON CAMPUS: THE ALLCAMPUS NETWORK

Having a meal plan will certainly make managing your food expenses easier. But you can also take control of other campus expenses and eliminate the need to carry cash by activating an AllCampus account.

The AllCampus Network is an electronic debit system that allows you to pay for items on campus simply by presenting your student ID card to the cashier. Working like a credit card in reverse, the amount of your purchase is automatically deducted from your AllCampus account.

THE ALLCAMPUS ACCOUNT IS ACCEPTED AT THE FOLLOWING LOCATIONS:

- NCSU Bookstores
- Residence hall laundry facilities
- University Dining locations and vending machines
- Ticket Central (campus cultural events and concerts)
- Parking services
- Witherspoon Cinema

ALLCAMPUS: IT'S A FREE SERVICE

There is never an access charge, even if you make several purchases a day, nor is there an annual fee. Just make your first deposit, and you're ready to go. Your money is transferable from one academic year to the next, and if you close your account, the balance of your money is refunded.

ALLCAMPUS: IT'S SECURE

Because your AllCampus account is accessed through your AllCampus Student ID card that bears your photo, no one can use it but you. While stolen cash can be used anywhere, your AllCampus account can be frozen immediately if you report your card missing. Your money is always safe.

MAKE DEPOSITS ONLINE

Adding money to your AllCampus card is easy to do and is available anytime day or night. Simply go to www.ncsuallcampus.com and make a deposit using your MasterCard or Visa. Online deposits are safe, convenient, and offer you the flexibility to keep just the right amount on your card at all times.

SIGN UP NOW

Just fill out the application form and return it in the dining request form envelope with your check or money order.
